If I had seen you at the last, And held your dying hand, And heard the last sigh from your heart, I would not feel so bad.

I did not know the pain you I did not see you die, I only knew you went away. And did not say good-bye.

Flowers wither, leaves fade and die, Though others forget you Never shall I.

Dear is the grave in which he is laid.

Sweet is the memory which never shall fade,
Heart of my life is buried deep.
Under the sod where he peacefully sleeps.

You suffered much, you marmured not,
I watched you day by day.

I watched you day by day, Until at last with a broken heart I saw you pass nway, BY HIS EVER DEVOTED FRIEND.

Over the border line, waiting is she.
Crowned with the light of eternal day.
Soon, by the grace of the one we adore.
We shall be with her forever more.
